Regular monthly meeting of the Rosamond Foundation was called to order at 5:30 pm by Secretary John Joyce at Rosamond Community Center on Diamond Street.

1- At the last regular Board of Directors meeting before the Second Annual Gala Lightning Award Banquet on October 22, 2011, Chairman Byron Glennan reported table sales to himself and Director Scherer. He said that the EAFB chaplain turned him down when he asked him to offer the invocation at the Gala. He said he was surprised by the turndown. He said he would find some other professional clergyman to offer an invocation.

2- Treasurer Spoor presented a ticket sales report. So far $11,500. collected and pledged. Expenses $6,000. Approximately 100 meals needed. She said Ramon Ortega from the Lancaster/Rosamond Chamber of Commerce had not responded. Judge Oglesby did not appear on the paid list even though he had called in for instructions about how to order his tickets online. Director Joyce said he would ask Mr. Landsgaard to contact the judge again. The president of the Lancaster/Rosamond Chamber of Commerce said she was coming to the Gala.

3- No report from President Webb about the status of political commendations for Lorelei Oviatt coming from Congresswoman Conley, State Senator Fuller and Supervisor Scrivner.

4- Director Joyce reported he would pick up the completed, inscribed Lightning Award on October 13 and 250 memorial mugs on the same day.

5- Director Joyce reported photos and movie clips of the 2010 Rosamond Foundation Gala were going to be sent to Wayside Chapel media specialist on Wednesday morning October 12, via Jennifer Beich at: office@waysideweb.org

6- Evidently phone messages about the Gala went into an answering machine at RCSD for an entire week without any personal response for eight days prior to October 11. Lizette Guerrero called Director Joyce on October 11 to say the Foundation web site was not working and the Space Port was having trouble ordering their table on October 4. In fact the Space Port used the Foundation web site without any problems to pay for and receive their confirmation on October 4.

Lizette said she didn't know how to respond to Supervisor Antonovich's office and many other callers that called to confirm their tickets for the Gala. She wanted to know who to direct the calls to. Director Joyce told Lizette to call Director Glennan. Director Spoor called Lizette earlier in the day to help her out with the big mixup. Evidently Tom Eisenhower got a huge runaround trying to buy his table.

7- NEXT GALA COMMITTEE MEETING - Monday, October 17, 5pm, Rosamond Community Center on Diamond Street.
